Quick Start For Groves Music Online

This part of Help is designed to assist you start using Oxford Music Online right away. There are two main ways to access content on the site:

- Searching: type what you want to find into the Search Box
- Browsing: access articles via Oxford Music Online indexes

3.1. Searching

You can search all the source titles included in the library’s subscription, or restrict your search to one or more specific source titles (e.g. Grove Music Online only).

3.1.1. Searching All Sources

To find information on a specific individual (e.g. Mozart) or topic (e.g. Habsburg) across all the available source titles:

1. On any page, type or paste the item you want to find into the Search Box at the top right-hand corner. Leave the "Search Only" tick-box unchecked.

2. Click Search or press Enter.

The list of matching entries is displayed on the Search Results page.

3.1.2. Searching a Specific Source

To limit your search to the content of Grove Music Online:

1. On any page, type or paste the item you want to find into the search box at the top right-hand corner.

2. Check the “Search Only” tick-box beneath the search field.

3. Click Search or press Enter.

To restrict your search to other or multiple reference source titles in Oxford Music Online (e.g., Grove Music Online and The Oxford Companion to Music):

1. On the home page, type or paste the item you want to find in the Search by source box.
2. Check the title(s) of the source(s) you want to search.

3. Click Search or press Enter.

The list of matching entries is displayed on the Search Results page(s).

3.1.3. Search Results

The matching entries are listed on the Results page(s).

The number of results appears at the top of the page. The results are listed in the main part of the page.

Each result consists of the name of the article, followed by a brief excerpt from the part of the article that contains your search term.

To view any of the results, click on it. The article is displayed with the matching term(s) highlighted.

You have the option to refine the results by limiting them to a particular source title and/or category using the Search Results panel.