SIRS Quick Search

Subject Headings Search

Subject Headings search is useful when you have a specific research topic in mind and you want to use a subject index to quickly locate articles and sites related to that topic. All articles in the SIRS Knowledge Source database are indexed primarily according to Library of Congress Subject Headings.

1. Select the Quick Search tab and then select the Subject Headings option.
This page will appear

2. Type in the subject heading that you are looking for and select Search.

Type the subject in the box and click Search.

A page will appear that gives you links to the full text of articles. It will also have a topic overview, timeline and statistics.
Look here for Overviews and timeline

Pro and Cons are a good place to get opposing viewpoints on a topic.

Click this space for any Interactive media.

The listing of full text articles starts here.